ARRESTED HERE FOR A ROBBERY

Two Indianapolis Colored Women Caught in Rushville After Hold-up at Connersville

TRY TO GET RID OF MONEY

House of Local Man Believed to be "Fence" Searched but Reveals no Evidence

Two hours after John Sherman, a well-to-do resident of Connersville, had been sand-bagged and robbed of $70 by two colored women, the police here arrested two women answering the description of the robbers and held them for the arrival of the Connersville officers. The robbery took place late Saturday night near the Connersville postoffice, almost in the very heart of the business district and was one of the most daring of a long series that has gripped Connersville for the past month.

The colored women gave the names of Rose Parham, 27, 707 Northwest street, Indianapolis and Frances Miles, 22, 430 Toledo street, Indianapolis. When arraigned in Connersville this morning on charges of highway robbery, the Parham woman gave the name of Wilson.

With the arrest of these two women the police of both cities believe they have broken up a gang that has been operating successfully for some time past. Immediately following the hold-up of Mr. Sherman the police dragnet was thrown out and resulted in Nancy Hodgins and Maggie Morris of this city and Abe Massey, Logan Jasper and Howard Nidy, of Connersville, all colored, being placed in jail. The two Rushville women were found at the traction station in Connersville in company with the three men and as Sherman stated that it was two colored women who held him up suspicion pointed to them.

They were still in the Connersville jail this afternoon, but it is believed no charges will be filed against them since things point to the guilt of the two women arrested here. The colored people apparently did not know what the charges were against them or of what they were suspicioned as they had a glorious time in jail this morning. Their singing and yelling could be heard for blocks and attracted a great deal of attention there.

Sherman was on his way home at the time of the robbery. He stated that as he approached the two women, one of them suddenly swung at him with a sand bag or some blunt instrument, rendering him unconscious. By the time he recovered $70 had been taken from his pockets and the women disappeared. The search was started and the first results were the arrests of the local women. The crew of the last traction car recalled seeing two colored women walking along the right-of-way towards Rushville.

Sheriff Cavitt and the police were getting the sheriff's automobile out of the garage preparatory to going east in an effort to meet the two women, when an automobile was seen coming from the east. The machine was stopped and the two colored women were found in the rear seat. The driver was from a Glenwood garage and had been hired by the women to bring them here.

At the jail a total of $80 was found on the two colored women. They had money scattered all over them, some being hidden in their stockings. One bill was found in the cuff of a coat worn by one of the women. The women made several attempts to get rid of the money, which was very suspicious and leads the police to believe they were the ones who held up Sherman.

Two $20 bills were found on the floor of the jail corridor, which had evidently been dropped by one of

LEE IS REMOVED FROM OFFICE TODAY

Governor James P. Goodrich Holds That he is Incompetent to Serve on Commission

HEARING ON CHARGES HELD

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Edwin M. Lee, member of the Indiana public service commission, was today removed from office by Governor James P. Goodrich on charges of incompetency.

One of the governor's first official acts on taking office was to demand Lee's resignation. Lee refused. Charges were filed against him, declaring that he had been appointed to office by Governor Ralston while masquerading as a progressive although he was really a democrat. Under the provisions of the public service commission law only a certain number of members of any one party may serve on the commission and if Lee was a democrat his appointment would be illegal.

A hearing on the charges was held at which testimony tending to show that Lee was in close touch with the democratic headquarters during the last campaign was introduced.

ASKS LEAGUE TO ENFORCE PEACE

President Wilson Addresses Senate, Urging Monroe Doctrine be Made Doctrine of World

CAN'T LONG BE POSTPONED

Declares for Peace Founded on Equality of Rights and Freedom to Develop Resources

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 22.—President Wilson today recommended that the United States join a league of nations to enforce world peace.

In a speech before the senate he urged that the principles of the American Monroe doctrine be made the doctrine of the world.

He declared there "is no entangling alliance in a concert of power."

The president said a settlement to guarantee peace and justice throughout the world could not be long postponed and that this government should formulate the conditions upon which it could act, its people to prove adherence to a league for peace.

He declared he was taking it for granted that mere terms of peace between the belligerents will not even satisfy the warring nations themselves.

Agreement will not make peace secure, he said, and it will be necessary that a force be created to guarantee the permanency of the settlement.

He laid down the following basis for a lasting peace:

Add the authority and power of the United States to the authority and force of other nations to guaranee peace and justice throughout the world.

A peace founded on equality of rights.

So far as practicable freedom to all nations for full development of resources and direct outlet to the great highways of the sea.

Freedom of the seas.

Limitation of naval and military armament.

EXPECT FINAL ACTION TODAY

Legislators Prepared to Vote on Several Measures When They Convened at 2 P. M. Today

A SENATE FIGHT LOOMS UP

Row Over Measure to Abolish Capital Punishment Anticipated as Week's Session Opens

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Final action on several important bills was expected at today's session of the legislature when both houses met at 2 o'clock following the week-end recess.

The fight on Senator McCray's bill providing for the abolishment of capital punishment was expected to come up in today's session of the upper house of the legislature. The bill will come up for its third reading and final action.

Senator Kinder's bill providing that school boards, trustees and commissioners may negotiate loans was also scheduled for its third reading. The bill is favored generally as schools do not receive taxes until six months after they are collected and are often pressed for ready money.

The bill introduced by Senator Negley of Indianapolis, which provides for the distribution of food through peddlers by elimination of license fees, will also receive favorable action, it was believed. The bill would prohibit charging peddlers and hawkers for doing business in any city, provided they are the original producers of the goods which they have for sale. It is believed the measure would be of special benefit to farmers.

Nine bills were to be presented in the house for final reading. They are:

Representative Harris' bill which provides for the transfer of Superior court No. 3 from Hammond to Gary. A similar bill introduced in the senate by Senator Kinder passed the upper house.

The bill presented by Representative Cooper of Greenfield providing that drivers of school hacks must stop before crossing railroad tracks. This bill was prompted by the large number of accidents resulting from trains striking school hacks.

Representative Symon's bill fixing the term of the fifty-third judicial district.

Representative Southard's bill which provides for the protection of fish in the southern waters of Lake Michigan.

Representative Mosier's bill which amends an act so that county commissioners must receive petitions before changing township lines.

Representative Turner's bill which amends an act to give both the defense and prosecution in civil cases six premptory challenges.

Representative Harker's bill which provides that cities of the fifth class may create park boards.

Representative Krieg's bill which would bar minors from pool rooms.

Representative Kimmel's bill which provides a penalty for persons caught in the act of peeping into private residences or on grounds with intent to peep.

In the upper house, Senator Reser of Lafayette planned to present a bill providing for the abolishment of the bureau of legislative information as an economy measure. Committee reports on a number of important measures were expected.

Representative Mason of Milton today planned to present another bill amending the Indiana primary law in the lower house of the legislature. The bill, as drafted at present, would provide for but one registration for the primary and the regular election. Any person who voted at the primary election, would be en-

BRINGS MESSAGE ON SOCIAL EVILS

Dr. J. A. McCuaig Speaks Five Times Sunday and is Apparently at His Best at Last

BEGINS A WEEK'S SERIES

Discloses the "Million Dollar Secret" at M. E. Church—Lectures Twice a Day

Bringing a message that disclosed the dangers of social evils not only in large cities but in communities like Rushville, Dr. J. Aspinall McCuaig of New York began a week's campaign in Rushville Sunday by addressing five meetings. The strenuous day did not leave any traces of its effects on him for last night at the nine o'clock mass meeting he was apparently at his best. He spoke at the Main Street Christian church in the morning, to a men's meeting at the First Baptist church at 2 p. m., to a women's meeting at 3 p. m. at the United Presbyterian church, at the First Presbyterian church at 7 and to a mass meeting at 9 o'clock at St. Paul's M. E. church.

Dr. McCuaig will hold two meetings a day this week at St. Paul's M. E. church until the auditorium becomes too small, when he will move over to the Main Street Christian church. He delivered an address this afternoon at three o'clock to women on the training of the child and tonight at 7:30 o'clock will speak to a general audience on the topic, "Responsibility of the Home for Social Evil." His second lecture on eugenics tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock will be on the subject, "The Care of the Boy."

The union meeting held at the St. Paul's M. E. church last night at 9 o'clock was the climax of the five meetings conducted by Dr. J. A. McCuaig in the local churches yesterday. He disclosed to the immense crowd that packed the church the "Million Dollar Secret" which was the subject of his sermon.

"The first part of this great secret which will change your life from a narrow contracted existence into a broadened life worth living, is to train yourself to see things which the natural eye cannot see," he said. "See these things in the book of God and in the faces of men and women. Look back of the scar and read the story of the battle, if you will. Our impatience with our fellows is a great impediment in our Christian lives, and this would be overcome if we only understood the story behind their faces.

"And when you have looked farther than the natural eye can see, allow this vision to translate itself into true emotion. The greatest thing that can come into our lives is compassion. Allow it to come and you will forget you are tired and sick, cultivate it and you will become bigger. Make it a true impulse, And then when you have done these two things, translate this impulse into a service. That is the place where most Christians fall down, they see and feel a thing but they fail to act." The sermon was illustrated throughout with appealing stories and apt examples.

"God leans over the world and cries, 'My little ones perish for lack of knowledge' " began Dr. McCuaig as he addressed the women's meeting in the United Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Ross conducted the song service and devotional meeting preceding the talk, which was heard by a large crowd of women. Dr. McCuaig's message dwelt upon the women of today, their obligations and duties.

"There is a stupendous obligation with every one of you who has the light to let it shine forth. We protect our children in a physical way, we put up every defense for their safety except education about these all important matters." He pleaded

T. E. McAllister and Enas Greeley Pay Fines for Allowing Minors to Play Pool

Enas Greeley and T. E. McAllister owners of pool rooms recently indicted by the grand jury, appeared in court today and entered pleas of guilty—McAllister to two charges and Greeley to one. Greeley paid a fine of $5 and costs for allowing minors to play pool and a charge of allowing minors in a pool room was dismissed.

McAllister pleaded guilty to allowing minors in a pool room and for allowing minors to play pool. The fine was $5 and costs in both cases. A charge against him of keeping a gaming device was nolled on motion of the prosecuting attorney.

The McAllister case was set for trial tomorrow.

Rush County Fair Board Decides to Ask County Council for Appropriation as Law Provides

MEETING TO BE SATURDAY

Walter Easley Elected Secretary to Succeed Perry Oneal, Resigned—Circuit Meeting Thursday

That another effort shall be made to get an appropriation from the county, as provided by law, for the support of the county fair, when the county council meets Saturday, has been decided upon by the board of directors of the Rush County Fair association.

The board of directors, at a meeting Saturday afternoon, also selected a tentative date and elected Walter Easley secretary to succeed Perry Oneal, who was elected at the last annual meeting. Mr. Oneal resigned because he felt that he did not have the time that should be devoted to the position. Mr. Easley has consented to be secretary. It is believed by the board and others acquainted with Mr. Easley's ability that he will make a very capable secretary because of his wide experience in such matters.

The tentative date selected by the board can not be disclosed at this time because it is not known whether the date will fit in with the schedule of the Southeastern Indiana Fair association, of which the Rush county association is a member. It is also not known whether the date would be satisfactory to the other members of the association. However, this matter will be settled when the association meets at Vernon on Thursday of this week. The Rush County Fair association will be represented at that meeting by Secretary Easley and Noah Tryon, the grounds superintendent.

A committee composed of Ab Denning, William Dagler and Noah Tryon has been appointed to confer with the county council Saturday when it meets and ask for the the appropriation to which the fair is entitled by law for its support. The fair association has repeatedly made this demand but has always been refused. However, it is believed that the county council may take a different view of the matter this year in view of the circumstances.

The fair board will meet again the first Monday in February, the fifth, to settle all matters finally in regard to the fair.

Mrs. O. P. Wamsley is suffering with an attack of la grippe.

SUIT TO ANNUL RATES STARTS

Case of Connersville Telephone Co. Against State Commission Opens Here Today

MANY EXPERT WITNESSES

Court is Not Asked to Establish New Rates but to Annul Order of the Commission

The case of the Connersville Telephone company against the Public Service Commission of Indiana, to annual an order establishing telephone rates and regulations for the telephone company, started this morning in circuit court before Judge Will M. Sparks. The suit is attracting considerable attention, especially among the farmers of Fayette county as they are concerned in the case because the order of the commission affects their service and rates.

The evidence in the case will largely be of a technical nature dealing with valuations, going values, depreciations and rates little understood by the average layman. The telephone company has a large number of expert witnesses, including the managers of several city plants in this state. L. A. Frazee, the plaintiff in the action, is represented by Harry M. Dowling of Indianapolis and the Public Service Commission is defended by U. S. Lesh of Huntington, assistant attorney general.

Most of the morning was taken up with the opening statements. The court is not asked to establish any new rates but to annul the order of the commission fixing the rates. Sitting with Mr. Lesh in the court room is William Elsworth Jones, who headed the original petition to the commission asking that the rate be changed.

Mr. Dowling in his statement to the court reviewed the order of the commission setting up the plaintiff's objections to each. He declared that under the order of the commission as it now stands, the Connersville Telephone company could be compelled to erect lines all over the state to supply country subscribers. He pointed out that a farmer to secure service, under the order, was only compelled to sign a contract for a year at $15 payable quarterly, and the company was compelled to erect the line in half-mile lengths. He declared that this half-mile lengths could be extended indefinitely under the order and this section was termed as unfair and unjust.

Under the order of the commission a depreciation fund of $5,099 a year was created and Mr. Dowling stated that out of this the company was supposed to pay all losses from depreciation, including losses by flood and fire. He declared that this was not high enough to cover the actual loss from these sources and referred to the heavy loss sustained in 1913.

Mr. Lesh declared at the start of his opening statement that he was handicapped because he was not in the original action and the case he could make before the court would be from his investigation of the records. He referred to the cut in salary ordered for the manager. Under the terms of the commission Mr. Frazee's salary as manager was cut from $3,000 to $1,800 and Mr. Lesh pointed out that he knew of instances where managers of much larger plants did not receive this much salary. He stated that the commission derived their findings from an average of five years' business done by the Connersville company and declared that the ruling was just and fair. He charged that previous to the order of the commission the telephone company had a set of rates and charges that were discriminatory in that the rates were not the same to all subscribers or class of subscribers. He declared that the

EXPECTS RENEWED EFFORT IN GERMANY

England Anticipates Another Series of "Ruthlessness" on Land and Sea Soon

NEW SUBMARINES BUILT

(By United Press.)

London, Jan. 22.—England expects another series of German "ruthlessness" on land and sea soon that will eclipse any military and naval effort made by the central powers.

Failure of peace proposals; the firm belief expressed by the allied powers in their rejection of any peace save of their own making and restoring German military and naval prestige are coupled here with reports of vast preparations in Germany. Scores of new submarines are expected to be released to prey upon allied shipping. The wildest stories as to the great speed, size, armament and defensively armored strength of these new under-sea craft are current.

The Connersville police believed that a "fence" existed here in Rushville where the women had been disposing of their stolen goods. One of the women was acquainted with Charles Carter, colored, and stated to Chief Yakey that she was enroute to his home at the time. The police visited the Carter home in West Fourth street this morning but found nothing that would indicate that he was in any way implicated. It was expected that the women would be given a preliminary hearing this afternoon.

PENROSE FORCES FIGHT FOR CONTROL

Having Won Speakership of Pennsylvania House the Real Battle is Now Expected.

GOVERNOR HEADS OTHER SIDE

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 22.—Pennsylvania's Legislature reassembled today with the power of the so-called Boss, United States Senator Bois Penrose, leader of the Republican organization since Matthew Stanley Quay died in 1904, in the balance. By electing Richard J. Baldwin speaker of the House three weeks ago Penrose men defeated the opposition led by Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh and the Vares.

The speakership was only incidental to the battle. The real struggle was for control of the state organization and control of next year's primaries, when candidates are to be nominated for governor, congress, the Legislature. Armed with the veto power, Governor Brumbaugh may spoil enemy plans. Penrose must get a two-thirds vote to override a veto.

Penrose lieutenants have been talking "investigation" and "impeachment" of the governor. Declarations that he will be "Sulzerized" have been made more or less openly. Assemblyman Isadore Stern of Philadelphia, has repeatedly declared he will introduce impeachment proceedings.

Amusements

The Princess will show Robert Warwick and Gerda Holmes in the feature picture "Friday, the 13th," for the program tonight. The story was written by Thomas W. Lawson, who has been frequently mentioned lately in the "leak" investigation growing out of the president's peace note. The scenes are laid in New York and shows that the road to right is always against the crowd. Tomorrow the comedy-drama "Home" will be shown. Bessie Barriscale and Charles Ray are featured.

The Gem offers the five reel colored picture "The Sultana" for the program tonight. Ruth Roland is featured. The picture in natural colors adds much to its beauty and makes it an attraction out of the ordinary. The story is interesting and exciting and is from the well known book of the same name by Henry C. Rowlands. Tomorrow the twelfth episode of "Liberty," entitled "For the Flag" will be shown.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Two hundred thousand individual petitions from all parts of the state asking the Indiana legislature to enact a prohibition law were presented in the house this afternon. The petitions, each on a separate piece of paper, were gathered by the Indiana Dry Federation and the Womans Legislative Council. They stated that this was just a "starter" of what can be expected. It was expected that the petitions were to be sent to the public morals committee of the house.

TO GIVE COAL PREFERENCE

Railroads Ordered to Take This Step to Relieve Famine

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—All railroads in Indiana will be ordered to give preference to coal shipments in Indiana over all other freight except live stock in an attempt to relieve the coal shortage, it was announced today following a conference between Governor Goodrich and members of the public service commission. Coal cars on Indiana roads shall be used for transportation of coal in the state only during the period, according to the order.

Reconsignment charges will be raised so high for a period of sixty days that shippers will find no profit in reconsigning coal shipments.

Divorce Yourself from Pain and Kidney Disorder

(By Dr. L. C. Babcock.)

Simple methods are usually the most effective ones when treating any disorder of the human system. The mere drinking of a cup of hot water each morning, plenty of pure water all day, and a little Anuric (double strength) before every meal has been found the most effective means of overcoming kidneys did not work day and night in separating poison and uric acid from the blood.

The danger signals are backache, depressions, aches, pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness, rheumatic twinges, swollen joints, gout.

It is such a simple matter to step into your favorite drug store and obtain Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce, of the Surgical Institute, Buffalo. Every druggist dispenses it.

All people in America and especially those who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit uric acid (uratic salts) in their tissues and joints. They often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands or feet. Such people are not always able to exercise sufficiently in the outdoor air in order to sweat freely and excrete impurities through the skin. Anuric will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to constant need of getting out of bed at night, by carrying off the uric acid poison.—(Adv.)

Facing a Deficit.

At frequent intervals during the past three years, the republican press of the country has presented, for the consideration of the Wilson administration, figures derived from official records and showng that, as a revenue measure, the Underwood tariff has been a failure. That law was passed by a party which claims to be an advocate of a tariff for revenue only, and professes to be vigorously opposed to protection in any form or degree. In its effort to eliminate absolutely all protection from our import tariffs, that party, in framing the Underwood law, cut the import duties so low as to impair its revenue-producing features.

Leaders of the democratic party have been so uncompromising in their opposition to protection that they would not heed the facts presented by the Republican press showing the need of an increase in import duties for revenue purposes. They have had before them figures showing that during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, under a republican tariff law, the total value of imports was $1,813,000,000 upon which the government collected customs revenues to the amount of $318,142,000, and that during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1916, imports aggregated $2,197,800,000 upon which the government collected import duties amounting to only $211,866,000. The average rate of duty collected in 1913 under Repblican tariff laws was 17.5 per cent, and in 1916 under the Underwood tariff law only 9.72 per cent.

Today the democratic administration finds itself in dire straits for want of revenue. It faces the probability, if not the certainty, of a deficit of $300,000,000 in the next fiscal year, unless some measures be found to provide more Federal income. It also faces the probability if not the certainty, that upon the close of the war. European and Asiatic nations, which have in the past two years brought their productive industries to the highest state of efficiency, will pour their surplus manufactured products into our markets.

With these two vital facts before them and frequently impressed upon them by the republican press, the administration hesitates and apparently refuses to revise its tariff law, for the purpose of either protecton or revenue. It demonstrates its inability to grasp the simplest elements of domestic economy. It hopes in some way to find some means of imposing further taxes upon our own people and gives not a thought to the opportunity to impose a tax upon those foreign producers who ship their products into our markets for sale in competition with the products of American labor and Americancan enterprise.

Whether the administration will ultimately awake to the situation and to its duty, is doubtful. However that may be, the republican press of the country may have the satisfaction of knowing that it has faithfully performed its duty in the colletcion and presentation of facts which are of vital importance to the welfare of the country, regardless of partisan politics.

W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, expressed regret in the hearing at Washington before the house interstate commerce committee that he prevented a strike last fall when the machinery was all ready to be set in motion. Does he mean that he was duped into leading his organization to the support of Wilson only to be thrown down after the election?

Since Senator Works has introduced a bill in congress which, if it became a law, would impose a fine on every man who does not vote, the Muncie Press comments that several thousand gentlemen of color below the Mason and Dixon line would face the alternative of going to jail in lieu of payment of the fine or sudden death.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

THREE SERIOUSLY INJURED IN WRECK

Interurban Cars Collide Head on North of LaFontaine, Dense Fog Shutting Off View

FIVE OTHERS SLIGHTLY HURT

Marion, Ind., Jan. 22.—A head-on collision shortly after 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon on the Union Traction line, three miles north of LaFontaine, resulted in serious injuries to three persons. Five others were slightly hurt.

The collision was due to a failure of the trains to meet at LaFontaine, according to schedule. Car No. 250, in charge of Motorman C. Benner and Conductor Oliver P. Jester, both of Anderson, proceeded north, running into train No. 258, south bound, in charge of Fred Joliff, motorman, and Arley Thomas, conductor, both of Marion. Joliff saw the approach of the north-bound car in time to leap to the center part of his car and escaped injury.

Both cars were wrecked badly and the property loss to the company will be considerable. The cars were lightly loaded, containing not more than eighteen passengers. Most of those hurt were passengers on the north-bound car. The fact that car No. 258 had stopped to discharge passengers and had not yet attained any speed prevented a disastrous crash.

The dense fog made it impossible for either motorman to see far ahead.. The injured were brought to the hospital in this city, where their injuries were treated.

TO COMBINE ALL BILLS ON SUBJECT

Judiciary A Committee Will Attempt Tonight to Reach Agreement on Workmen's Compensation

ONE PROVISION TO REMAIN

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22—An attempt to combine all bills which have been introduced into the legislature affecting the workmen's compensation act will be made at a meeting tonight of the judiciary A committees of both the house and senate.

Nine bills which would affect the compenhation act are now before the two bodies. Many of the measures overlap. Several incorporate the administration recommendation that the period of waiting for compensation for injured workmen be shortened from seven to fourteen days. This is one clause which will undoubtedly be included in the bill which will be reported on favorably by the committees.

It is also expected that a large part of the bill introduced by Senator Kinder of Gary providing that the amount of compensation for injured workmen be raised from 55 to 65 per cent will be in the bill.

TO RELIEVE CAR SHORTAGE

Interstate Commerce Commission Orders Immediate Returns be Made.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 20.—Holding "present car shortage conditions are serious and require immediate relief" and that "the supply of coal in many communities is inadequate," the interstate commerce commission has directed the immediate return of all foreign coal cars and railroad-owned or controlled refrigerator cars to their own lines when received empty or when their bills of lading are removed. Such cars "received under load," the commisison orders, must be forwarded to destination.

Today's Legislative Oddity

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Four cents a mile fare may be charged on at least one Indiana railroad, provided a bill presented in the lower house by Representative Jinnett of Rushville is passed. The bill provides that four cents a mile may be charged on any railroad less than eight miles in length. It applies to the Louisville, New Albany and Corydon railroad which operate 7.70 miles. Charles Buchanan is the magnate owner, conductor, engineer and porter on the line. Introduction of the bill revived a story told when the line was first built.

When the road was organized, Buchanan wrote to all important railroads in the country asking an exchange of passes. He received transportation from every company except the Pennsylvania. They wrote back that because the road was so short, they could see no reason for exchange of courtesies. Buchanan immediately replied saying: "Your road may be longer than mine but its not a bit wider."

WANTS TO JOIN VERNON CASTLE

Robert Bowlby, American Dancer, is in London and Desires to Get in Air Corps

IS WITH CANADIAN FORCES

Has Had a Varied Career and Aviation Would be an Added Experience For Him.

BY H. W. PEGLER.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Jan. 22.—(By Mail)—Robert A. Bowlby, American, whose dancing evoked a thousand variations of "ain't he graceful" from Broadway to Portland, Ore., may join Vernon Castle in the clouds before winter is over. The former star of stage and ballroom is now a lieutenant in the Canadian forces, camped in England awaiting sterner activities. Bowlby hopes to become an airman.

After months of mud-wading in camp, Bowlby was discovered in London, eagerly watching the afternoon dancers at one of the leading hotels. He seemed glad to be back in "the life" again if only for the short duration of his leave.

"It seems like Broadway in the days when dancing was 'it,' " he said reminiscently. "Those couples don't appear as enthusiastic as Americans and though it may be just the European way, I'm wondering if the craze isn't fading.

"Skating will hardly take the same hold that dancing did, in America. Indoor ice is too expensive and people aren't likely to learn skating as they did dancing. Maybe they will go in for aviation."

The dance craze caught Bowlby about the time the Castles, Vernon and Irene, reached the top of their fame. Joining the tango peer's company he speedily fox trotted his way to the top of the new profession.

Little more than a year ago he was in charge of the catering and entertainments in a Canadian system of railroad-owned hotels. Calgary, Vancouver, Victoria, and Winnipeg were Bowlby's towns and thousands of Canadians stepped the new measures while he conducted affairs.

Canadians were enlisting every day. Bowlby's friends melted from sight as the transports carried new contingents over seas. He is over six feet tall, atheletic and a football veteran of Connecticut Wesleyan, at Middletown, Conn. Civilian clothes were becoming out of fashion, so Bowlby joined at Winnipeg.

Aviation will be another experience in a varied career when Bowlby takes to the air. He ranched near Missoula Mont., and knows the range as well as the stage.

If he comes back from France when it's all over he hopes to be there when his old frat, Beta Theta Pi comes together for the yearly reunion.

WHAT-YOU-MAY COLUMN

Tables.

The table proper is a piece of dining room furniture supported by hand carved legs and father's pocketbook. It is the family table, or table that the family sit at.

The cafe table is contra-distinguished from the family table by its diversity of uses. The cafe table is sometimes sat at, often sat on and not infrequently sat under, depending upon the ebriate condition of the setees.

Then we have the round-table. The round-table is what government officials sat at when they don't want to be on the square. The only other species of round table is the one of which you get a square meal for fifteen cents.

Tables also are what we turn on folks to show them they're not so smart as they think they are.

That leaves the time table. The time table is an instrument of torture designed to keep you from finding out when your train goes.

GRAND CIRCUIT STEWARDS MEET

Proposed Changes in Circuit Hold Chief Interest—Two Cities Want Back in.

BETTING SYSTEM BOBS UP

(By United Press.)

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—Possible changes in the Grand Circuit's make-up constituted the chief point of interest here today when the stewards gathered for the 44th annual meeting.

Peoria, Ill., and Jacksonville, Fla., have presented applications for membership, and Readville, Pa., where the 2-minute record was broken by Star Pointer, is understood to be considering similar action.

This meetng will consider demanding of Hartford a guarantee that it will give a full week of Grand Circuit events. It is charged the Connecticut track gave inadequate purses and less than three days of races of Grand Circuit calibre. Should Hartford drop out, Poughkeepsie probably would also go, for shipping distance would be too great for horsemen to make the venture.

The rules committee, will consider reverting to the standard time-allowance system, forsaking the present method whereby fast horses are allowed in slower fields after having lost a number of races in faster time. The coming steeds have been imposed upon by the fast ones, is the rather general protest.

The pari-mutuel betting system, adopted over the old bookmaking system in Detroit, Cleveland and Grand Rapids, is sure to come up again, though an effort last year to make it general failed.

Tracks represented are Columbus, Detroit, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Poughkeepsie, Hartford, Syracuse, Lexington, Atlanta, and Cleveland.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION
Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes —Most Women Can Have
Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, you will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, sallow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

THE MYSTIC SEVEN
The number runs all through history. It is supposed to have originated from the three sides of the triangle and the four sides of the square; or the observation of the seven planets. However, the fact remains that it appears persistently. The world was created in seven days, every seventh year was Sabbatical, all through the Old and New Testament the figure seven was symbolical, the Dove was sent from the Ark on its second mission just seven days from the first mission. Pharaoh's dream was of the seven lean and seven fat kine. This dream was interpreted by Joseph as seven years of plenty and seven years of famine. Joseph provided for the seven years of famine by storing up in the seven years of plenty. Have you done the same thing? History repeats itself! We are now in the seven years of plenty! Why not save up for a possible famine? I can help you!

In her talk before the members of her class on Saturday afternoon, Miss Margaret Donnan dwelt upon Robert Frost's new book, "Mountain Interval," containing some of the author's newest and best verses all breathing the atmosphere of New England. Mr. Frost is considered one of the foremost of the newer poets. William Dean Howell's, in his book "Year's of My Youth" reminisces in his characteristic way over the days of his boyhood and youth. The style is particularly beautiful and it is considered one of Mr. Howell's best books. "The Lion's Share," by Arnold Bennett is nothing of any great literary value, according to Miss Donnan, but it is popular today because it is very modern. The heroine in the book like many girls of today, is not contented with merely getting a husband but wants to be a suffragette and in fact "do everything." The class will have the next meeting in two weeks.

An entertainment was given on Saturday evening in the Falmouth I. O. O. F. Hall under the auspices of the Young People's Mission Circle, when the program was furnished by the Oliver and Cook concert company of the Indianapolis conservatory of Music. The entertainment was of especial interest inasmuch as Gifford Cook and Curtis Scholl, both of that vicinity, were members of the company, consisting of five members. There was a very good attendance and the program was a financial success.

Mrs. Larrabie, head of the department of dramatic art in the school, gave a number of readings and impersonations, and was very popular with the audience. Mr. Weissner gave several readings and piano numbers as well. Master Elmer Kruse, a talented violinist, was a favorite with his solos. Mr. Oliver and Mr. Cook showed splendid culture of the voice in their vocal selections. Curtis Scholl acted as accompanist and is a talented pianist.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whittling at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

ANITA STEWART SAYS—

(COPYRIGHT 1916-VITAGRAPH)

Aspect of Co-operation.

How much about that word co-operation we hear nowadays. Everybody seems to be thinking and saying co-operation. And after all it is well, for without co-operation most things would fail.

In the motion picture industry I find co-operation one of the most essential things to observe. The manuscript writer, director, star and supporting members of the cost must work together in order to insure a perfect production; and in these days of perfection first, last, and always, no other would be acceptable.

First the director talks with the staff writer of the scenario, getting his ideas concerning the different characterizations and settings. Then a conference with the star takes place, and by meltng all the ideas into one, the best of them is obtained.

Not only in our business life, but in every phase of our existence is co-operation necessary. There would be little or no happiness in the home if all members did not work together.

One of the most harmonious and peaceful homes I know is not a luxurious one by any means. In fact, the dear mother is dead and the oldest daughter of nineteen runs the house. The father and three older brothrs go to work, while the youngest son of ten goes to school. In this little cottage, where I love to visit, there is always a desire on every one's part to help the other. When the evening meal is cleared away all settle contentedly for an hour of reading, checkers or some home diversion. And another thing—every brother takes his turn at helping with the dishes so that the sister has as much of the evening as possible.

When a new piece of furniture is desired they all save together; and often the whole family will go to purchase the article. They are dear old people whom it is a great pleasure to know, and it is only through co-operation that such an atmosphere has been made possible. Their informal gatherings are always a success, for they instil that helping, co-operative spirit into their guests; and a candy pull in their spotlessly clean kitchen is the treat of the season to all of us.

Let our every thought and desire be one of co-operation for the next week or so, dear friends, and I am sure we will have no desire to change at the end of that trial period.

BRINGS MESSAGE ON SOCIAL EVILS

for a living up to standards. "A wife or mother is fallen who lives below the ideals, the highest of them, of her girlhood. A mother is untrue to her daughter and a father to his son, if they allow their children to make the same mistakes that they made without first teaching them the right way."

At the men's meeting Dr. McCuaig urged the proper training of the boy before he starts to school so that he will not get the impression that the problem of sex, which he classed as, greatest dynamic power in the world, will not seem to him an unclean thing which it does when he gets it from an older boy.

One of the most striking of the addresses which Dr. McCuaig delivered in this city Sunday was the morning lecture at the Christian church on "God's Need of Men." The basis of the discourse was the First Book of Samuel, 17th chapter. Dr. McCuag said in part:

"You remember the story of David and Goliath. It is the story of how, once upon a time, for forty days the armies of the living God were openly defiled and reproached and belittled—not because God was not strong to deliver, but because God lacked a man—a man by whom He could strike.

"Strange as it may seem, God has need of human instrumentality. All history bears testimony of His dependence upon man in His dealings with men. He would bring a people out of Egypt—He must have Moses. Out of the darkness he would call the Gentiles—He must have Paul. The story of God's dealings with the generations has been the story of Noah and Abraham and Moses and Joshua and David and the prophets.

"God has need of men today. There are human elements upon which He is dependent. There is human agency without which he is limited. In the presence of God's need of men. I would inquire, what was there in David that fitted him for Jehovah? What were the human elements in him that God could use?"

Attention was here called to the sensitiveness, the conviction, the logic, the discretion and the effectiveness of David.

Continuing, Dr. McCuaig said:

"This story of the ages is alive today in every detail. The teaching of the incident is pregnant with practical import.

"Firstly, I call you to witness that the people who are called by God's name are pressed and challenged and defiled today, perhaps as never before.

"The forces of evil are blantant. They pitch their tents in high places. They sit in the seats of administrations in your great cities. They reach out to control education and art, and even benevolence. They feign patriotism and drape the flag of a Christian nation around a beer keg.

"Their champions are on every hillside. They stalk up and down with vulgar display. They labor behind every monopoly. They pollute with their foulness every stream of life, from the great fount of being itself to the most secluded spring and streamlet of God's favor. Their haunts are the roadhouse and brothel and wineroom and dance hall and playhouse.

"There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard. Through a subsidized press they corrupt morals. With the subtility of the harlot, they appeal to eye and to ear and to nostril and palate. In all their vocabutary there is nothing holy, nothing sacred, nothing unapproachable. And under the blighting influence of this embodiment of blasphemy, the very foundations of faith are shaken and the choicest of God's heritage laid waste.

"It has passed beyond challenge today—the hand of the enemy is upon the spoil.

"Where ih the Sabbath in America? Even the songs of the sanctuary are sung to the music of the Philistines, and the prophecies of God are spoken in the language of the street and the barroom. But weep most O Daughter of Zion, for the broken homes of the people with their desolate altars.

"Secondly, I call you to witness that organization and equipment are not effective against the onslaught.

"As in the days of Saul, the people of God today are not within organization and equipment.

"Two years ago a world council of one of the greatest Protestant churches of the twentieth century was held in American—the Ecumenical Conference of the Methodist Church. On the table at that conference were laid reports which showed that that great church had grown and grown and grown, until in this country alone, she was worth two hundred and twenty-nine millions of dollars in equipment. And side by side with these reports, were laid reports which showed that in the five years just preceding not a single soul had been added to the membership strength of that church in all that great land where John and Charles Wesley lived and labored, including also the United States, known as the Eastern section of the Methodist churchs.

"And this condition is not peculiar to the Methodist church. It is characteristic of all churches, and figures in all church history, and the secret of it lies away back in God's choice of human instrumentality.

"Organization and equipment of themselves are not esual to the onslaught of evil.

"And lastly, I call you to witness that Jehovah Himself is the hope of His people, and He has need of purged, devoted men.

"The measure of the might of the army of God is the measure of heart and loyalty there. God and a single given over man are absolutely unlimited. There is enough human instrumentality in the worst desperado in Indiana to shake this continent from the Isthmus to the Pole, if he be unbaisedly God's to use.

"God will smite evil. Before Him, covetousness and uncleanesss and intemperance will flee away. His day is coming, when not a voice shall be unlifted and not a wheel turn but to His praise.

"The vital issue is not shall His kingdom, come, but in the bringing in of His kingdom may He use you—your minds, your voices, your hands? God wants you."

NO MENTION OF ANY AMERICANS TAKEN

State Department Receives First Official Word of Activities of German Raider

TO STAND PAT ON POSITION

By J. P. YODER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 22.—The state department's first official word on the German raider's capture of prisoners in the South Atlantic including 103 neutrals came from Ambassador Gerard today in a message saying the total prisoners numbered 469.

There was no mention of Americans in the number, officials said.

The message referred to the prisoners on the Yarrowdale which has arrived at a German port.

The department announced that it had required of Germany whether Americans were involved. At the same time it indicated that it will demand their release if Americans were aboard; will stand pat on its position that the Yarrowdale was on a peaceful mission; will hold that Germany had no right to take American members of her crew prisoners.

The department will maintain Germany has no right to convert ships on the high seas into raiders.

DELEGATION OF 300 FROM HERE TO GO

President of Dry Federation Says Crowd From Rush is Promised to Stir up Sentiment

INVITATIONS SENT OUT

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Invitations will probably be sent out this week by the Dry Federation and the Indiana Woman's Legislative Council asking county delegations to come to the capital and stir up sentiment among their representatives in the legislature for the prohibition bill. The delegations will be asked to come as soon as the house prohibition bill comes up for the third reading.

Mrs. Felix McWhirter, president of the council and W. E. Carpenter, Brazil, president of the Dry Federation, today stated that they were not overly confident of victory.

A delegation of 300 from Rush county has already been promised, according to Carpenter. Delegations of similar size are expected from all sections of the state.

titled to vote at the regular election. This, it is believed, would save the expense now necessary for a double registration.

The bill would also provide that the primary be held six months prior to the autumn elections. Another provision is that the names of all candidates be printed on a single ballot and the voter will not be required to declare what party he belongs to before casting his ballot at the primary. He would be required, however, to vote for candidates of one party only.

Provided the voter changes his residence between the time of the primary and the general election, an affidavit signed by two property holders of the precinct in which the voter lived at the time of registration, may be presented at the polls and entitle the man to a vote.

Representative Eikenberry of Flora today expected to introduce a bill providing that if a man and woman are found living together, provided they are not married, be used as sufficient evidence for conviction on a statuatory charge. Great difficulty is experienced under the present law to convict such persons.

Provision that real estate in the name of a wife and husband be divided equally when demand is made on either for payment of debt, is made in a bill drawn up by Representative Johnson of Monterey. The present law provides that in case real estate is in the name of both husband and wife, it cannot be taken by creditors of either. Johnson is also planning to present a bill which will abolish the office of county gravel superintendents who receive $4 a day.

ARRESTED HERE FOR A ROBBERY

Two Indianapolis Colored Women Caught in Rushville After Hold-up at Connersville

TRY TO GET RID OF MONEY

House of Local Man Believed to be "Fence" Searched but Reveals no Evidence

Two hours after John Sherman, a well-to-do resident of Connersville, had been sand-bagged and robbed of $70 by two colored women, the police here arrested two women answering the description of the robbers and held them for the arrival of the Connersville officers. The robbery took place late Saturday night near the Connersville postoffice, almost in the very heart of the business district and was one of the most daring of a long series that has gripped Connersville for the past month.

The colored women gave the names of Rose Parham, 27, 707 Northwest street, Indianapolis and Frances Miles, 22, 430 Toledo street, Indianapolis. When arraigned in Connersville this morning on charges of highway robbery, the Parham woman gave the name of Wilson.

With the arrest of these two women the police of both cities believe they have broken up a gang that has been operating successfully for some time past. Immediately following the hold-up of Mr. Sherman the police dragnet was thrown out and resulted in Nancy Hodgins and Maggie Morris of this city and "Abe" Massey, Logan Jasper and Howard Nidy, of Connersville, all colored, being placed in jail. The two Rushville women were found at the traction station in Connersville in company with the three men and as Sherman stated that it was two colored women who held him up suspicion pointed to them.

They were still in the Connersville jail this afternoon, but it is believed no charges will be filed against them since things point to the guilt of the two women arrested here. The colored people apparently did not know what the charges were against them or of what they were suspicioned as they had a glorious time in jail this morning. Their singing and yelling could be heard for blocks and attracted a great deal of attention there.

Sherman was on his way home at the time of the robbery. He stated that as he approached the two women, one of them suddenly swung at him with a sand bag or some blunt instrument, rendering him unconscious. By the time he recovered $70 had been taken from his pockets and the women disappeared. The search was started and the first results were the arrests of the local women. The crew of the last traction car recalled seeing two colored women walking along the right-of-way towards Rushville.

Sheriff Cavitt and the police were getting the sheriff's automobile out of the garage preparatory to going east in an effort to meet the two women. when an automobile was seen coming from the east. The machine was stopped and the two colored women were found in the rear seat. The driver was from a Glenwood garage and had been hired by the women to bring them here.

At the jail a total of $80 was found on the two colored women. They had money scattered all over them, some being hidden in their stockings. One bill was found in the cuff of a coat worn by one of the women. The women made several attempts to get rid of the money, which was very suspicious and leads the police to believe they were the ones who held up Sherman.

Two $20 bills were found on the floor of the jail corridor, which had evidently been dropped by one of

LEE IS REMOVED FROM OFFICE TODAY

Governor James P. Goodrich Holds That he is Incompetent to Serve on Commission

HEARING ON CHARGES HELD

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Edwin M. Lee, member of the Indiana public service commission, was today removed from office by Governor James P. Goodrich on charges of incompetency.

One of the governor's first official acts on taking office was to demand Lee's resignation. Lee refused. Charges were filed against him, declaring that he had been appointed to office by Governor Ralston while masquerading as a progressive although he was really a democrat. Under the provisions of the public service commission law only a certain number of members of any one party may serve on the commission and if Lee was a democrat his appointment would be illegal.

A hearing on the charges was held at which testimony tending to show that Lee was in close touch with the democratic headquarters during the last campaign was introduced.

ASKS LEAGUE TO ENFORCE PEACE

President Wilson Addresses Senate, Urging Monroe Doctrine be Made Doctrine of World

CAN'T LONG BE POSTPONED

Declares for Peace Founded on Equality of Rights and Freedom to Develop Resources

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 22.—President Wilson today recommended that the United States join a league of nations to enforce world peace.

In a speech before the senate he urged that the principles of the American Monroe doctrine be made the doctrine of the world.

He declared there "is no entangling alliance in a concert of power."

The president said a settlement to guarantee peace and justice throughout the world could not be long postponed and that this government should formulate the conditions upon which it could act, its people to prove adherence to a league for peace.

He declared he was taking it for granted that mere terms of peace between the belligerents will not even satisfy the warring nations themselves.

Agreement will not make peace secure, he said, and it will be necessary that a force be created to guarantee the permanency of the settlement.

He laid down the following basis for a lasting peace:

Add the authority and power of the United States to the authority and force of other nations to guarantee peace and justice throughout the world.

A peace founded on equality of rights.

So far as practicable freedom to all nations for full development of resources and direct outlet to the great highways of the sea.

Freedom of the seas.

Limitation of naval and military armament.

EXPECT FINAL ACTION TODAY

Legislators Prepared to Vote on Several Measures When They Convened at 2 P. M. Today

A SENATE FIGHT LOOMS UP

Row Over Measure to Abolish Capital Punishment Anticipated as Week's Session Opens

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Final action on several important bills was expected at today's session of the legislature when both houses met at 2 o'clock following the week-end recess.

The fight on Senator McCray's bill providing for the abolishment of capital punishment was expected to come up in today's session of the upper house of the legislature. The bill will come up for its third reading and final action.

Senator Kinder's bill providing that school boards, trustees and commissioners may negotiate loans was also scheduled for its third reading. The bill is favored generally as schools do not receive taxes until six months after they are collected and are often pressed for ready money.

The bill introduced by Senator Negley of Indianapolis, which provides for the distribution of food through peddlers by elimination of license fees, will also receive favorable action, it was believed. The bill would prohibit charging peddlers and hawkers for doing business in any city, provided they are the original producers of the goods which they have for sale. It is believed the measure would be of special benefit to farmers.

Nine bills were to be presented in the house for final reading. They are:

Representative Harris' bill which provides for the transfer of Superior court No. 3 from Hammond to Gary. A similar bill introduced in the senate by Senator Kinder passed the upper house.

The bill presented by Representative Cooper of Greenfield providing that drivers of school hacks must stop before crossing railroad tracks. This bill was prompted by the large number of accidents resulting from trains striking school hacks.

Representative Symon's bill fixing the term of the fifty-third judicial district.

Representative Southard's bill which provides for the protection of fish in the southern waters of Lake Michigan.

Representative Mosier's bill which amends an act so that county commissioners must receive petitions before changing township lines.

Representative Turner's bill which amends an act to give both the defense and prosecution in civil cases six premptory challenges.

Representative Harker's bill which provides that cities of the fifth class may create park boards.

Representative Krieg's bill which would bar minors from pool rooms.

Representative Kimmel's bill which provides a penalty for persons caught in the act of peeping into private residences or on grounds with intent to peep.

In the upper house, Senator Reser of Lafayette planned to present a bill providing for the abolishment of the bureau of legislative information as an economy measure. Committee reports on a number of important measures were expected.

Representative Mason of Milton today planned to present another bill amending the Indiana primary law in the lower house of the legislature. The bill, as drafted at present, would provide for but one registration for the primary and the regular election. Any person who voted at the primary election, would be en-

BRINGS MESSAGE ON SOCIAL EVILS

Dr. J. A. McCuaig Speaks Five Times Sunday and is Apparently at His Best at Last

BEGINS A WEEK'S SERIES

Discloses the "Million Dollar Secret" at M. E. Church—Lectures Twice a Day

Bringing a message that disclosed the dangers of social evils not only in large cities but in communities like Rushville, Dr. J. Aspinall McCuaig of New York began a week's campaign in Rushville Sunday by addressing five meetings. The strenuous day did not leave any traces of its effects on him for last night at the nine o'clock mass meeting he was apparently at his best. He spoke at the Main Street Christian church in the morning, to a men's meeting at the First Baptist church at 2 p. m., to a women's meeting at 3 p. m. at the United Presbyterian church, at the First Presbyterian church at 7 and to a mass meeting at 9 o'clock at St. Paul's M. E. church.

Dr. McCuaig will hold two meetings a day this week at St. Paul's M. E. church until the auditorium becomes too small, when he will move over to the Main Street Christian church. He delivered an address this afternoon at three o'clock to women on the training of the child and tonight at 7:30 o'clock will speak to a general audience on the topic, "Responsibility of the Home for Social Evil." His second lecture on eugenics tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock will be on the subject, "The Care of the Boy."

The union meeting held at the St. Paul's M. E. church last night at 9 o'clock was the climax of the five meetings conducted by Dr. J. A. McCuaig in the local churches yesterday. He disclosed to the immense crowd that packed the church the "Million Dollar Secret" which was the subject of his sermon.

"The first part of this great secret which will change your life from a narrow contracted existence into a broadened life wouth living, is to train yourself to see things which the natural eye cannot see," he said. "See these things in the book of God and in the faces of men and women. Look back of the scar and read the story of the battle, if you will. Our impatience with our fellows is a great impediment in our Christian lives, and this would be overcome if we only understood the story behind their faces.

"And when you have looked farther than the natural eye can see, allow this vision to translate itself into true emotion. The greatest thing that can come into our lives is compassion. Allow it to come and you will forget you are tired and sick, cultivate it and you will become bigger. Make it a true impulse, And then when you have done these two things, translate this impulse into a service. That is the place where most Christians fall down, they see and feel a thing but they fail to act." The sermon was illustrated throughout with appealing stories and apt examples.

"God leans over the world and cries, 'My little ones perish for lack of knowledge' " began Dr. McCuaig as he addressed the women's meeting in the United Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Harry Ross conducted the song service and devotional meeting preceding the talk, which was heard by a large crowd of women. Dr. McCuaig's message dwelt upon the women of today, their obligations and duties.

"There is a stupendous obligation with every one of you who has the light to let it shine forth. We protect our children in a physical way, we put up every defense for their safety except education about these all important matters." He pleaded

TWO PLEAD GUILTY TO 3 INDICTMENTS

T. E. McAllister and Enas Greeley Pay Fines for Allowing Minors to Play Pool

ONE AGAINST EACH NOLLED

Enas Greeley and T. E. McAllister owners of pool rooms recently indicted by the grand jury, appeared in court today and entered pleas of guilty—McAllister to two charges and Greeley to one. Greeley paid a fine of $5 and costs for allowing minors to play pool and a charge of allowing minors in a pool room was dismissed.

McAllister pleaded guilty to allowing minors in a pool room and for allowing minors to play pool. The fine was $5 and costs in both cases. A charge against him of keeping a gaming device was nolled on motion of the prosecuting attorney.

The McAllister case was set for trial tomorrow.

TO MAKE APPEAL FOR HELP AGAIN

Rush County Fair Board Decides to Ask County Council for Appropriation as Law Provides

MEETING TO BE SATURDAY

Walter Easley Elected Secretary to Succeed Perry Oneal, Resigned—Circuit Meeting Thursday

That another effort shall be made to get an appropriation from the county, as provided by law, for the support of the county fair, when the county council meets Saturday, has been decided upon by the board of directors of the Rush County Fair association.

The board of directors, at a meeting Saturday afternoon, also selected a tentative date and elected Walter Easley secretary to succeed Perry Oneal, who was elected at the last annual meeting. Mr. Oneal resigned because he felt that he did not have the time that should be devoted to the position. Mr. Easley has consented to be secretary. It is believed by the board and others acquainted with Mr. Easley's ability that he will make a very capable secretary because of his wide experience in such matters.

The tentative date selected by the board can not be disclosed at this time because it is not known whether the date will fit in with the schedule of the Southeastern Indiana Fair association, of which the Rush county association is a member. It is also not known whether the date would be satisfactory to the other members of the association. However, this matter will be settled when the association meets at Vernon on Thursday of this week. The Rush County Fair association will be represented at that meeting by Secretary Easley and Noah Tryon, the grounds superintendent.

A committee composed of Ab Denning, William Dagler and Noah Tryon has been appointed to confer with the county council Saturday when it meets and ask for the appropriation to which the fair is entitled by law for its support. The fair association has repeatedly made this demand but has always been refused. However, it is believed that the county council may take a different view of the matter this year in view of the circumstances.

The fair board will meet again the first Monday in February, the fifth, to settle all matters finally in regard to the fair.

Mrs. O. P. Wamsley is suffering with an attack of la grippe.

SUIT TO ANNUL RATES STARTS

Case of Connersville Telephone Co. Against State Commission Opens Here Today

MANY EXPERT WITNESSES

Court is Not Asked to Establish New Rates but to Annul Order of the Commission

The case of the Connersville Telephone company against the Public Service Commission of Indiana, to annual an order establishing telephone rates and regulations for the telephone company, started this morning in circuit court before Judge Will M. Sparks. The suit is attracting considerable attention, especially among the farmers of Fayette county as they are concerned in the case because the order of the commission affects their service and rates.

The evidence in the case will largely be of a technical nature dealing with valuations, going values, depreciations and rates little understood by the average layman. The telephone company has a large number of expert witnesses, including the managers of several city plants in this state. L. A. Frazee, the plaintiff in the action, is represented by Harry M. Dowling of Indianapolis and the Public Service Commission is defended by U. S. Lesh of Huntington, assistant attorney general.

Most of the morning was taken up with the opening statements. The court is not asked to establish any new rates but to annul the order of the commission fixing the rates. Sitting with Mr. Lesh in the court room is William Elsworth Jones, who headed the original petition to the commission asking that the rate be changed.

Mr. Dowling in his statement to the court reviewed the order of the commission setting up the plaintiff's objections to each. He declared that under the order of the commission as it now stands, the Connersville Telephone company could be compelled to erect lines all over the state to supply country subscribers. He pointed out that a farmer to secure service, under the order, was only compelled to sign a contract for a year at $15 payable quarterly, and the company was compelled to erect the line in half-mile lengths. He declared that this half-mile lengths could be extended indefinitely under the order and this section was termed as unfair and unjust.

Under the order of the commission a depreciation fund of $5,099 a year was created and Mr. Dowling stated that out of this the company was supposed to pay all losses from depreciation, including losses by flood and fire. He declared that this was not high enough to cover the actual loss from these sources and referred to the heavy loss sustained in 1913.

Mr. Lesh declared at the start of his opening statement that he was handicapped because he was not in the original action and the case he could make before the court would be from his investigation of the records. He referred to the cut in salary ordered for the manager. Under the terms of the commission Mr. Frazee's salary as manager was cut from $3,000 to $1,800 and Mr. Lesh pointed out that he knew of instances where managers of much larger plants did not receive this much salary. He stated that the commission derived their findings from an average of five years' business done by the Connersville company and declared that the ruling was just and fair. He charged that previous to the order of the commission the telephone company had a set of rates and charges that were discriminatory in that the rates were not the same to all subscribers or class of subscribers. He declared that the

England Anticipates Another Series of "Ruthlessness" on Land and Sea Soon

NEW SUBMARINES BUILT

(By United Press.)

London, Jan. 22.—England expects another series of German "ruthlessness" on land and sea soon that will eclipse any military and naval effort made by the central powers.

Failure of peace proposals; the firm belief expressed by the allied powers in their rejection of any peace save of their own making and restoring German military and naval prestige are coupled here with reports of vast preparations in Germany. Scores of new submarines are expected to be released to prey upon allied shipping. The wildest stories as to the great speed, size, armament and defensively armored strength of these new under-sea craft are current.

The Connersville police believed that a "fence" existed here in Rushville where the women had been disposing of their stolen goods. One of the women was acquainted with Charles Carter, colored, and stated to Chief Yakey that she was enroute to his home at the time. The police visited the Carter home in West Fourth street this morning but found nothing that would indicate that he was in any way implicated. It was expected that the women would be given a preliminary hearing this afternoon.

PENROSE FORCES FIGHT FOR CONTROL

Having Won Speakership of Pennsylvania House the Real Battle is Now Expected.

GOVERNOR HEADS OTHER SIDE

Harrisburg, Pa., Jan. 22.—Pennsylvania's Legislature reassembled today with the power of the so-called Boss, United States Senator Bois Penrose, leader of the Republican organization since Matthew Stanley Quay died in 1904, in the balance. By electing Richard J. Baldwin speaker of the House three weeks ago Penrose men defeated the opposition led by Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh and the Vares.

The speakership was only incidental to the battle. The real struggle was for control of the state organization and control of next year's primaries, when candidates are to be nominated for governor, congress, the Legislature. Armed with the veto power, Governor Brumbaugh may spoil enemy plans. Penrose must get a two-thirds vote to override a veto.

Penrose lieutenants have been talking "investigation" and "impeachment" of the governor. Declarations that he will be "Sulzerized" have been made more or less openly. Assemblyman Isadore Stern of Philadelphia, has repeatedly declared he will introduce impeachment proceedings.

PETITIONS FOR DRY STATE

200,000 From All Parts of State Presented in House Today

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Two hundred thousand individual petitions from all parts of the state asking the Indiana legislature to enact a prohibition law were presented in the house this afternoon. The petitions, each on a separate piece of paper, were gathered by the Indiana Dry Federation and the Woman's Legislative Council. They stated that this was just a "starter" of what can be expected. It was expected that the petitions were to be sent to the public morals committee of the house.

TO GIVE COAL PREFERENCE

Railroads Ordered to Take This Step to Relieve Famine

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—All railroads in Indiana will be ordered to give preference to coal shipments in Indiana over all other freight except live stock in an attempt to relieve the coal shortage, it was announced today following a conference between Governor Goodrich and members of the public service commission. Coal cars on Indiana roads shall be used for transportation of coal in the state only during the period, according to the order.

Reconsignment charges will be raised so high for a period of sixty days that shippers will find no profit in reconsigning coal shipments.

Divorce Yourself from Pain and Kidney Disorder

(By Dr. L. C. Babcock.)

Simple methods are usually the most effective ones when treating any disorder of the human system. The mere drinking of a cup of hot water each morning, plenty of pure water all day, and a little Anuric (double strength) before every meal has been found the most effective means of overcoming kidneys did not work day and night in separating poison and uric acid from the blood.

The danger signals are backache, depressions, aches, pains, heaviness, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, chilliness, rheumatic twinges, swollen joints, gout.

It is such a simple matter to step into your favorite drug store and obtain Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce, of the Surgical Institute, Buffalo. Every druggist dispenses it.

All people in America and especially those who are past middle age are prone to eat too much meat and in consequence deposit uric acid (uratic salts) in their tissues and joints. They often suffer from twinges of rheumatism or lumbago, sometimes from gout, swollen hands or feet. Such people are not always able to exercise sufficiently in the outdoor air in order to sweat freely and excrete impurities through the skin. Anuric will overcome such conditions as rheumatism, dropsical swellings, cold extremities, scalding and burning urine and sleeplessness due to constant need of getting out of bed at night, by carrying off the uric acid poison.—(Adv.)

Facing a Deficit.

At frequent intervals during the past three years, the republican press of the country has presented, for the consideration of the Wilson administration, figures derived from official records and showng that, as a revenue measure, the Underwood tariff has been a failure. That law was passed by a party which claims to be an advocate of a tariff for revenue only, and professes to be vigorously opposed to protection in any form or degree. In its effort to eliminate absolutely all protection from our import tariffs, that party, in framing the Underwood law, cut the import duties so low as to impair its revenue-producing features.

Leaders of the democratic party have been so uncompromising in their opposition to protection that they would not heed the facts presented by the Republican press showing the need of an increase in import duties for revenue purposes. They have had before them figures showing that during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1913, under a republican tariff law, the total value of imports was $1,813,000,000 upon which the government collected customs revenues to the amount of $318,142,000, and that during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1916, imports aggregated $2,197,800,000 upon which the government collected import duties amounting to only $211,866,000. The average rate of duty collected in 1913 under Repblican tariff laws was 17.5 per cent, and in 1916 under the Underwood tariff law only 9.72 per cent.

Today the democratic administration finds itself in dire straits for want of revenue. It faces the probability, if not the certainty, of a deficit of $300,000,000 in the next fiscal year, unless some measures be found to provide more Federal income. It also faces the probability if not the certainty, that upon the close of the war. European and Asiatic nations, which have in the past two years brought their productive industries to the highest state of efficiency, will pour their surplus manufactured products into our markets.

With these two vital facts before them and frequently impressed upon them by the republican press, the administration hesitates and apparently refuses to revise its tariff law, for the purpose of either protecton or revenue. It demonstrates its inability to grasp the simplest elements of domestic economy. It hopes in some way to find some means of imposing further taxes upon our own people and gives not a thought to the opportunity to impose a tax upon those foreign producers who ship their products into our markets for sale in competition with the products of American labor and Americancan enterprise.

Whether the administration will ultimately awake to the situation and to its duty, is doubtful. However that may be, the republican press of the country may have the satisfaction of knowing that it has faithfully performed its duty in the colleteion and presentation of facts which are of vital importance to the welfare of the country, regardless of partisan politics.

W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, expressed regret in the hearing at Washington before the house interstate commerce committee that he prevented a strike last fall when the machinery was all ready to be set in motion. Does he mean that he was duped into leading his organization to the support of Wilson only to be thrown down after the election?

Since Senator Works has introduced a bill in congress which, if it became a law, would impose a fine on every man who does not vote, the Muncie Press comments that several thousand gentlemen of color below the Mason and Dixon line would face the alternative of going to jail in lieu of payment of the fine or sudden death.

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back is aching or Bladder bothers, drink lots of water and eat less meat.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

THREE SERIOUSLY INJURED IN WRECK

Interurban Cars Collide Head on North of LaFontaine, Dense Fog Shutting Off View

FIVE OTHERS SLIGHTLY HURT

Marion, Ind., Jan. 22.—A head-on collision shortly after 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon on the Union Traction line, three miles north of LaFontaine, resulted in serious injuries to three persons. Five others were slightly hurt.

The collision was due to a failure of the trains to meet at LaFontaine, according to schedule. Car No. 250, in charge of Motorman C. Benner and Conductor Oliver P. Jester, both of Anderson, proceeded north, running into train No. 258, south bound, in charge of Fred Joliff, motorman, and Arley Thomas, conductor, both of Marion. Joliff saw the approach of the north-bound car in time to leap to the center part of his car and escaped injury.

Both cars were wrecked badly and the property loss to the company will be considerable. The cars were lightly loaded, containing not more than eighteen passengers. Most of those hurt were passengers on the north-bound car. The fact that car No. 258 had stopped to discharge passengers and had not yet attained any speed prevented a disastrous crash.

The dense fog made it impossible for either motorman to see far ahead. The injured were brought to the hospital in this city, where their injuries were treated.

TO COMBINE ALL BILLS ON SUBJECT

Judiciary A Committee Will Attempt Tonight to Reach Agreement on Workmen's Compensation

ONE PROVISION TO REMAIN

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22—An attempt to combine all bills which have been introduced into the legislature affecting the workmen's compensation act will be made at a meeting tonight of the judiciary A committees of both the house and senate.

Nine bills which would affect the compenbation act are now before the two bodies. Many of the measures overlap. Several incorporate the administration recommendation that the period of waiting for compensation for injured workmen be shortened from seven to fourteen days. This is one clause which will undoubtedly be included in the bill which will be reported on favorably by the committees.

It is also expected that a large part of the bill introduced by Senator Kinder of Gary providing that the amount of compensation for injured workmen be raised from 55 to 65 per cent will be in the bill.

TO RELIEVE CAR SHORTAGE

Interstate Commerce Commission Orders Immediate Returns be Made.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Jan. 20.—Holding "present car shortage conditions are serious and require immediate relief" and that "the supply of coal in many communities is inadequate," the interstate commerce commission has directed the immediate return of all foreign coal cars and railroad-owned or controlled refrigerator cars to their own lines when received empty or when their bills of lading are removed. Such cars "received under load," the commisison orders, must be forwarded to destination.

Today's Legislative Oddity

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Four cents a mile fare may be charged on at least one Indiana railroad, provided a bill presented in the lower house by Representative Jinnett of Rushville is passed. The bill provides that four cents a mile may be charged on any railroad less than eight miles in length. It applies to the Louisville, New Albany and Corydon railroad which operate 7.70 miles. Charles Buchanan is the magnate owner, conductor, engineer and porter on the line. Introduction of the bill revived a story told when the line was first built.

When the road was organized, Buchanan wrote to all important railroads in the country asking an exchange of passes. He received transportation from every company except the Pennsylvania. They wrote back that because the road was so short, they could see no reason for exchange of courtesies. Buchanan immediately replied saying: "Your road may be longer than mine but its not a bit wider."

WANTS TO JOIN VERNON CASTLE

Robert Bowlby, American Dancer, is in London and Desires to Get in Air Corps

IS WITH CANADIAN FORCES

Has Had a Varied Career and Aviation Would be an Added Experience For Him.

BY H. W. PEGLER.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

London, Jan. 22.—(By Mail)—Robert A. Bowlby, American, whose dancing evoked a thousand variations of "ain't he graceful" from Broadway to Portland, Ore., may join Vernon Castle in the clouds before winter is over. The former star of stage and ballroom is now a lieutenant in the Canadian forces, camped in England awaiting sterner activities. Bowlby hopes to become an airman.

After months of mud-wading in camp, Bowlby was discovered in London, eagerly watching the afternoon dancers at one of the leading hotels. He seemed glad to be back in "the life" again if only for the short duration of his leave.

"It seems like Broadway in the days when dancing was 'it,' " he said reminiscently. "Those couples don't appear as enthusiastic as Americans and though it may be just the European way, I'm wondering if the craze isn't fading.

"Skating will hardly take the same hold that dancing did, in America. Indoor ice is too expensive and people aren't likely to learn skating as they did dancing. Maybe they will go in for aviation."

The dance craze caught Bowlby about the time the Castles, Vernon and Irene, reached the top of their fame. Joining the tango peer's company he speedily fox trotted his way to the top of the new profession.

Little more than a year ago he was in charge of the catering and entertainments in a Canadian system of railroad-owned hotels. Calgary, Vancouver, Victoria, and Winnipeg were Bowlby's towns and thousands of Canadians stepped the new measures while he conducted affairs,

Canadians were enlisting every day. Bowlby's friends melted from sight as the transports carried new contingents over seas. He is over six feet tall, atheletic and a football veteran of Connecticut Wesleyan, at Middletown, Conn. Civilian clothes were becoming out of fashion, so Bowlby joined at Winnipeg.

Aviation will be another experience in a varied career when Bowlby takes to the air. He ranched near Missoula Mont., and knows the range as well as the stage.

If he comes back from France when it's all over he hopes to be there when his old frat, Beta Theta Pi comes together for the yearly reunion.

WHAT-YOU-MAY COLUMN

Tables.

The table proper is a piece of dining room furniture supported by hand carved legs and father's pocketbook. It is the family table, or table that the family sit at.

The cafe table is contra-distinguished from the family table by its diversity of uses. The cafe table is sometimes sat at, often sat on and not infrequently sat under, depending upon the ebriate condition of the setees.

Then we have the round-table. The round-table is what government officials sat at when they don't want to be on the square. The only other species of round table is the one of which you get a square meal for fifteen cents.

Tables also are what we turn on folks to show them they're not so smart as they think they are.

That leaves the time table. The time table is an instrument of torture designed to keep you from finding out when your train goes.

GRAND CIRCUIT STEWARDS MEET

Proposed Changes in Circuit Hold Chief Interest—Two Cities Want Back in.

BETTING SYSTEM BOBS UP

(By United Press.)

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 22.—Possible changes in the Grand Circuit's make-up constituted the chief point of interest here today when the stewards gathered for the 44th annual meeting.

Peoria, Ill., and Jacksonville, Fla., have presented applications for membership, and Readville, Pa., where the 2-minute record was broken by Star Pointer, is understood to be considering similar action.

This meetng will consider demanding of Hartford a guarantee that it will give a full week of Grand Circuit events. It is charged the Connecticut track gave inadequate purses and less than three days of races of Grand Circuit calibre. Should Hartford drop out, Poughkeepsie probably would also go, for shipping distance would be too great for horsemen to make the venture.

The rules committee, will consider reverting to the standard time-allowance system, forsaking the present method whereby fast horses are allowed in slower fields after having lost a number of races in faster time. The coming steeds have been imposed upon by the fast ones, is the rather general protest.

The pari-mutuel betting system, adopted over the old bookmaking system in Detroit, Cleveland and Grand Rapids, is sure to come up again, though an effort last year to make it general failed.

Tracks represented are Columbus, Detroit, Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Poughkeepsie, Hartford, Syracuse, Lexington, Atlanta, and Cleveland.

THE MYSTIC SEVEN

The number runs all through history. It is supposed to have originated from the three sides of the triangle and the four sides of the square; or the observation of the seven planets. However, the fact remains that it appears persistently. The world was created in seven days, every seventh year was Sabbatical, all through the Old and New Testament the figure seven was symbolical, the Dove was sent from the Ark on its second mission just seven days from the first mission. Pharaoh's dream was of the seven lean and seven fat kine. This dream was interpreted by Joseph as seven years of plenty and seven years of famine. Joseph provided for the seven years of famine by storing up in the seven years of plenty. Have you done the same thing? History repeats itself! We are now in the seven years of plenty! Why not save up for a possible famine? I can help you!

In her talk before the members of her class on Saturday afternoon, Miss Margaret Donnan dwelt upon Robert Frost's new book, "Mountain Interval," containing some of the author's newest and best verses all breathing the atmosphere of New England. Mr. Frost is considered one of the foremost of the newer poets. William Dean Howell's, in his book "Year's of My Youth" reminisces in his characteristic way over the days of his boyhood and youth. The style is particularly beautiful and it is considered one of Mr. Howell's best books. "The Lion's Share," by Arnold Bennett is nothing of any great literary value, according to Miss Donnan, but it is popular today because it is very modern. The heroine in the book like many girls of today, is not contented with merely getting a husband but wants to be a suffragette and in fact "do everything." The class will have the next meeting in two weeks.

An entertainment was given on Saturday evening in the Falmouth I. O. O. F. Hall under the auspices of the Young People's Mission Circle, when the program was furnished by the Oliver and Cook concert company of the Indianapolis conservatory of Music. The entertainment was of especial interest inasmuch as Gifford Cook and Curtis Scholl, both of that vicinity, were members of the company, consisting of five members. There was a very good attendance and the program was a financial success.

Mrs. Larrabie, head of the department of dramatic art in the school, gave a number of readings and impersonations, and was very popular with the audience. Mr. Weissner gave several readings and piano numbers as well. Master Elmer Kruse, a talented violinist, was a favorite with his solos. Mr. Oliver and Mr. Cook showed splendid culture of the voice in their vocal selections. Curtis Scholl acted as accompanist and is a talented pianist.

A program will be given by the same company at Mays on February 3rd.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whittling at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

ANITA STEWART SAYS—
(COPYRIGHT 1916-VITAGRAPH)

Aspect of Co-operation.

How much about that word co-operation we hear nowadays. Everybody seems to be thinking and saying co-operation. And after all it is well, for without co-operation most things would fail.

In the motion picture industry I find co-operation one of the most essential things to observe. The manuscript writer, director, star and supporting members of the cost must work together in order to insure a perfect production; and in these days of perfection first, last, and always, no other would be acceptable.

First the director talks with the staff writer of the scenario, getting his ideas concerning the different characterizations and settings. Then a conference with the star takes place, and by melting all the ideas into one, the best of them is obtained.

Not only in our business life, but in every phase of our existence is co-operation necessary. There would be little or no happiness in the home if all members did not work together.

One of the most harmonious and peaceful homes I know is not a luxurious one by any means. In fact, the dear mother is dead and the oldest daughter of nineteen runs the house. The father and three older brothrs go to work, while the youngest son of ten goes to school. In this little cottage, where I love to visit, there is always a desire on every one's part to help the other. When the evening meal is cleared away all settle contentedly for an hour of reading, checkers or some home diversion. And another thing—every brother takes his turn at helping with the dishes so that the sister has as much of the evening as possible.

When a new piece of furniture is desired they all save together; and often the whole family will go to purchase the article. They are dear old people whom it is a great pleasure to know, and it is only through co-operation that such an atmosphere has been made possible. Their informal gatherings are always a success, for they instil that helping, co-operative spirit into their guests; and a candy pull in their spotlessly clean kitchen is the treat of the season to all of us.

Let our every thought and desire be one of co-operation for the next week or so, dear friends, and I am sure we will have no desire to change at the end of that trial period.

BRINGS MESSAGE ON SOCIAL EVILS

for a living up to standards. "A wife or mother is fallen who lives below the ideals, the highest of them, of her girlhood. A mother is untrue to her daughter and a father to his son, if they allow their children to make the same mistakes that they made without first teaching them the right way."

At the men's meeting Dr. McCuaig urged the proper training of the boy before he starts to school so that he will not get the impression that the problem of sex, which he classed as, greatest dynamic power in the world, will not seem to him an unclean thing which it does when he gets it from an older boy.

One of the most striking of the addresses which Dr. McCuaig delivered in this city Sunday was the morning lecture at the Christian church on "God's Need of Men." The basis of the discourse was the First Book of Samuel, 17th chapter. Dr. McCuag said in part:

"You remember the story of David and Goliath. It is the story of how, once upon a time, for forty days the armies of the living God were openly defiled and reproached and belittled—not because God was not strong to deliver, but because God lacked a man—a man by whom He could strike.

"Strange as it may seem, God has need of human instrumentality. All history bears testimony of His dependence upon man in His dealings with men. He would bring a people out of Egypt—He must have Moses. Out of the darkness he would call the Gentiles—He must have Paul. The story of God's dealings with the generations has been the story of Noah and Abraham and Moses and Joshua and David and the prophets.

"God has need of men today. There are human elements upon which He is dependent. There is human agency without which he is limited. In the presence of God's need of men. I would inquire, what was there in David that fitted him for Jehovah? What were the human elements in him that God could use?"

Attention was here called to the sensitiveness, the conviction, the logic, the discretion and the effectiveness of David.

Continuing, Dr. McCuaig said:

"This story of the ages is alive today in every detail. The teaching of the incident is pregnant with practical import.

"Firstly, I call you to witness that the people who are called by God's name are pressed and challenged and defiled today, perhaps as never before.

"The forces of evil are blantant. They pitch their tents in high places. They sit in the seats of administrations in your great cities. They reach out to control education and art, and even benevolence. They feign patriotism and drape the flag of a Christian nation around a beer keg.

"Their champions are on every hillside. They stalk up and down with vulgar display. They labor behind every monopoly. They pollute with their foulness every stream of life, from the great fount of being itself to the most secluded spring and streamlet of God's favor. Their haunts are the roadhouse and brothel and wineroom and dance hall and playhouse.

"There is no speech or language where their voice is not heard. Through a subsidized press they corrupt morals. With the subtility of the harlot, they appeal to eye and to ear and to nostril and palate. In all their vocabutary there is nothing holy, nothing sacred, nothing unapproachable. And under the blighting influence of this embodiment of blasphemy, the very foundations of faith are shaken and the choicest of God's heritage laid waste.

"It has passed beyond challenge today—the hand of the enemy is upon the spoil.

"Where in the Sabbath in America? Even the songs of the sanctuary are sung to the music of the Philistines, and the prophecies of God are spoken in the language of the street and the barroom. But weep most O Daughter of Zion, for the broken homes of the people with their desolate altars.

"Secondly, I call you to witness that organization and equipment are not effective against the onslaught.

"As in the days of Saul, the people of God today are not within organization and equipment.

"Two years ago a world council of one of the greatest Protestant churches of the twentieth century was held in American—the Ecumenical Conference of the Methodist Church. On the table at that conference were laid reports which showed that that great church had grown and grown and grown, until in this country alone, she was worth two hundred and twenty-nine millions of dollars in equipment. And side by side with these reports, were laid reports which showed that in the five years just preceding not a single soul had been added to the membership strength of that church in all that great land where John and Charles Wesley lived and labored, including also the United States, known as the Eastern section of the Methodist churchs.

"And this condition is not peculiar to the Methodist church. It is characteristic of all churches, and figures in all church history, and the secret of it lies away back in God's choice of human instrumentality.

"Organization and equipment of themselves are not esual to the onslaught of evil.

"And lastly, I call you to witness that Jehovah Himself is the hope of His people, and He has need of purged, devoted men.

"The measure of the might of the army of God is the measure of heart and loyalty there. God and a single given over man are absolutely unlimited. There is enough human instrumentality in the worst desperado in Indiana to shake this continent from the Isthmus to the Pole, if he be unbaisedly God's to use.

"God will smite evil. Before Him, covetousness and uncleanesss and intemperance will flee away. His day is coming, when not a voice shall be unlifted and not a wheel turn but to His praise.

"The vital issue is not shall His kingdom, come, but in the bringing in of His kingdom may He use you—your minds, your voices, your hands? God wants you."

NO MENTION OF ANY AMERICANS TAKEN

State Department Receives First Official Word of Activities of German Raider

TO STAND PAT ON POSITION

By J. P. YODER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, Jan. 22.—The state department's first official word on the German raider's capture of prisoners in the South Atlantic including 103 neutrals came from Ambassador Gerard today in a message saying the total prisoners numbered 469.

There was no mention of Americans in the number, officials said.

The message referred to the prisoners on the Yarrowdale which has arrived at a German port.

The department announced that it had required of Germany whether Americans were involved. At the same time it indicated that it will demand their release if Americans were aboard; will stand pat on its position that the Yarrowdale was on a peaceful mission; will hold that Germany had no right to take American members of her crew prisoners.

The department will maintain Germany has no right to convert ships on the high seas into raiders.

DELEGATION OF 300 FROM HERE TO GO

President of Dry Federation Says Crowd From Rush is Promised to Stir up Sentiment

INVITATIONS SENT OUT

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—Invitations will probably be sent out this week by the Dry Federation and the Indiana Woman's Legislative Council asking county delegations to come to the capital and stir up sentiment among their representatives in the legislature for the prohibition bill. The delegations will be asked to come as soon as the house prohibition bill comes up for the third reading.

Mrs. Felix McWhirter, president of the council and W. E. Carpenter, Brazil, president of the Dry Federation, today stated that they were not overly confident of victory.

A delegation of 300 from Rush county has already been promised, according to Carpenter. Delegations of similar size are expected from all sections of the state.

titled to vote at the regular election. This, it is believed, would save the expense now necessary for a double registration.

The bill would also provide that the primary be held six months prior to the autumn elections. Another provision is that the names of all candidates be printed on a single ballot and the voter will not be required to declare what party he belongs to before casting his ballot at the primary. He would be required, however, to vote for candidates of one party only.

Provided the voter changes his residence between the time of the primary and the general election, an affidavit signed by two property holders of the precinct in which the voter lived at the time of registration, may be presented at the polls and entitle the man to a vote.

Representative Eikenberry of Flora today expected to introduce a bill providing that if a man and woman are found living together, provided they are not married, be used as sufficient evidence for conviction on a statutory charge. Great difficulty is experienced under the present law to convict such persons.

Provision that real estate in the name of a wife and husband be divided equally when demand is made on either for payment of debt, is made in a bill drawn up by Representative Johnson of Monterey. The present law provides that in case real estate is in the name of both husband and wife, it cannot be taken by creditors of either. Johnson is also planning to present a bill which will abolish the office of county gravel superintendents who receive $4 a day.
